Thank you for taking the time to complete these questions. We will keep your responses on file for one year from the day we receive them. We use this form as a means of reviewing interested clergy who have contacted us in the past as new openings emerge, and may make contact with you inviting your interest in a parish you perhaps did not anticipate in your response to question nine. We want to continue to build an excellent clergy team in the Diocese of North Carolina and are glad for your interest.
